

Jefferson County Man found Not Guilty for Armed Robbery

Michael Miller was indicted on one count of armed robbery of a local convenience store. The trial was held in the Jefferson County Circuit Court on May 14th and 15th, 2009

Charles Town, West Virginia (KHB) 15, May, 2009 – A Jefferson County resident was found not guilty of robbery in the first degree by a jury on May 15, 2009. Michael Miller was indicted for robbery in the first degree on January 23, 2009. After deliberating for 35 minutes the Jefferson County jury handed down a not guilty verdict. The defendant was represented by Charles Town attorney, David P. Skillman, Esquire.

Contact:

David P. Skillman, Esquire

Law Office of Kirk H. Bottner, PLLC

304-728-0158

www.bottnerlaw.com